The Springfield--Carthage Electric Railroad

"I believe that the Carthage--Springfield electric line will be built."

This announcement was made Monday morning by George B. Wood, the well known contractor. Mr. Wood stated that he was in Springfield recently and had an interview with the managers of the Springfield Traction company, who are backing the proposed road. While in Springfield he put in his bid for a stretch of road building and expected to learn this week whether his bid would be accepted or rejected. Bids were in for all the mileage between Carthage and Springfield and contracts would be let in a very short time.

"Things look mighty bright as to railroad matters just now," continued Mr. Wood. "I feel confident of Carthage getting the Springfield interurban line and it will come soon. Just now it is hard to tell what route will be decided on, the company seems to favor the northern route through Miller and Avilla. —Carthage Democrat.

In the August number of The Ladies' World there is a very interesting installment of the serial story, The Fairy's Janet, besides several short stories that are most enjoyable for mid-summer reading. The Gardens of Memory, by Shirley Carson, with illustrations by Rosenmeyer, is one of those delightful romances that envelop another, as it were, there being really two complete stories. A love tale with a very unusual turn is The Pot of Gold, by Louise J. Starkweather, the illustrations being by W. M. Berger. Harkening to the Call, a strong piece of work by W. Y. Sheppard, a new writer, is a summer tragedy—a struggle between worth and position, in which the latter wins. In special articles there is a very interesting one on Oliver Wendell Holmes, whose centenary occurs next month, by Clara E. Laughlin, one on Summer Work for Women, by Laura A. Smith, in which some rather unusual lines of employment are discussed, and one on Nursing at Home, by Wealtha A. Wilson. The Household department contains Sensible Summer Living, by Anna W. Morrison; Summer Drinks and How to Make Them, Household Information and Economics, and Family Problems; and there are besides How to Make Dress, by Helen D. Purdy; Answers to Questions on Dressmaking, The Latest Accessories of Dress, Fillet Net and Embroidery, Eancy Work for Summer Afternoons, Children's Stories, Health and Good Looks, Ways of Society, etc., etc.—[New York; Fifty Cents a Year.]

Dr. Shoop will also send free his new and very interesting little book describing Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. Health Coffee is such a close imitation of real Coffee, that it requires an expert to tell the difference. And neither is there a grain of real coffee in it. Made from pure toasted grains, malt, and nuts, its flavor and taste is exceedingly gratifying. No tedious boiling either. "Make in a minute," says Dr. Shoop. MONUMENTAL TALKS.

The agent for non-resident firms tells you what bargains he is furnishing in monuments; how in some way he is saving a deal of freight selling work at wholesale, owning large manufacturing plants, and possibly owns a quarry or two.

But possibly he forgets to tell you what commission or salary he is getting for selling work, what his traveling expenses are per month; also that he would be of no use to the firm he works for unless he made them a profit in addition to these extra expenses; that in any saving of freight or some other expense it is the local dealer who has the advantage; that the best satisfaction and best terms in buying monuments are obtained from buying direct from some reliable dealer and not through agents; that the best work is not obtained from the "cheap John" talker, and cheap work is dear at any price.

We do not employ agents. Cramer's monuments are dependable in every way. Give us a chance to show you what he can do, then if for any reason you do not think to your best interests to patronize the home dealer we will be glad to give you the names of other reliable dealers. It is not necessary to buy through agents and pay the extra salary or commission.
